Postdoctoral Positions

1. Using the Association of American Universities (AAU) definition detailed below, have you ever held a postdoctoral position (postdoc)?

The AAU definition of a postdoctoral scholar states:

- The appointee was recently awarded a Ph.D. or equivalent doctorate (e.g., Sc.D., M.D.) in an appropriate field; and
- the appointment is temporary; and
- the appointment involves substantially full-time research or scholarship; and
- the appointment is viewed as preparatory for a full-time academic and/or research career; and
- the appointment is not part of a clinical training program; and
- the appointee works under the supervision of a senior scholar or a department in a university or similar research institution (e.g., national laboratory, NIH, etc.); and
- the appointee has the freedom, and is expected, to publish the results of his or her research or scholarship during the period of the appointment.
- (See: http://www.aau.edu/reports/PostDocRpt.html)
